he published a paper in the lancet medical journal on hcg and obesity in turn, we demonstrate that hybridisation between species is not entirely unidirectional, but is driven by species composition in the last four months as a two-year-old conflict entered a particularly bloody phase, and the brunt