most frequently reported adverse reactions in the treatment of cervical dystonia were dysphagia (19), upper respiratory infections (12), neck pains (11), and headaches (11).

they can also be helpful at the end of treatment as you find yourself readjusting to everyday life again.

the effects of nicotine are subdued.