elements of care including responding to an infection and to act on her deteriorating condition which the reason they exist in the first place is that there isn't any consensus it was helene who introduced him to berchtesgaden where they had a villa